Family Histories
Klinker, Miller, Voyles, Simpson

This is family information as gathered by my aunt Lena Sappenfield who is my mother's (Hattie Klinker) youngest sister

I, Mary J. Brown, age 51 years will copy it word for word as Lena has written it.

Aunt Lena wrote this to my mother, Hattie Margaret (Miller) Klinker in the year 1959

January 20, 1959

I Lena Sappenfield am trying to write the history of my ancestors.

Some of this dates back to 1748. What little reference I have, or can remember my parents telling me. And I can remember a lot of the folks myself.

Some of the dates have been copied off markers in cemeterys.

Some information my sister, Flora Miller, sent me.

I have obtained some old history of the Voyles family. The Voyles are on our mother's side. (Amanda Jane Miller) Her mother was Lucinda Voyles Simpson, and was a decendent of the Voyles that came from Wales in 1748.

Flora gave me the following. Laura Wunnemacher wrote it for her. She got it from Dr. Ellis' wife, who was a daughter or granddaughter of Dave Voyles brother and lived in New Albany, Indiana.

VOYLES HISTORY

In the year 1748, William Voyles with his father and three brothers, came from Wales to Charleston, South Carolina, USA. William was the oldest and 14 years old and upon their arrival was apprenticed as a deck hand for 4 years to work out a debt incurred by the family during passage.

He was estranged from his family because of this and when he was released at the age of 18 left home and went to North Carolina, where according to C. V. Voyles he established friendly relations with his uncle C. V. Voyles. Great, great grandfather William married an Italian woman named Rhodesa Bundy AND EStablished a home in North Carolina. Shortly enlisting in the cause of the American Revolution.

William Voiles (Voyles) brothers were as follows: John, who died near the line dividing North and South Carolina. Thomas Voiles who moved to Mercer County, Kentucky and James Voiles who died on the Godkin River in North Carolina.

Children and grand children of these live in many states. There seems to be yet a different branch of this same family in North Carolina and they still keep the original spelling of their name Voiles.

I wrote to county authorities and advertised in Cabarras Co., North Carolina in 1906 and procured this data. Also corresponded with C. V. Voyles, an attorney, who mailed me a clipping taken from a Salem, Indaian, paper dated 1876 and mailed to his father by "Old Dave Voyles" of Washington County, Indiana. My father Wilfred Voyles, uncle Dave Voyles, who lived beyond 90 who was a son of William.

Uncle Dave and C. V. Voyles father always corresponded and considered themselves cousins.

C. V. Voyles said after William fell out with his family he wrote an uncle David in Wales and induced him to come over. The C. V. Voyles family decended from this David.

William served in the American Revolution, there is no record of what he did between his 18th year and the Revolution. He could have fought in the French and Indain wars.

We have definite information from our branch of the family that he fought in the American Revolution, was one of MARION'S men and rendered splendid service to his country, he was paid for his Revolution service by a grant of land from the government of North Carolina. This was found from official state records in North Carolina. The land was on the frontier. He moved there with his family.

Old Dave's daughter, Barbara Drucella Johnson, told many stories of the frontier and how they were in constant danger of Indians. The log house was so constructed that they could shoot out from above. The story relates how the Indians came and drove off the cattle. And William and the older boys went in search for them. They were gone two or three days, and those left at home, including her father "Old Dave" who was one of the younger children were in constant terror, especially at night. Indians came another time and surrounded the house and they boarded the windows for protection.

The older children first immigrated to Kentucky and then to Indiana.

William died about 1804 Cabarres County, North Carolina, which was no longer a frontier. He was buried in the family burying ground on the old farm, which can be easily located from the county records. C. V. Voyles said his father knew just where the graves are and offered to take me to them if I would come down.

The younger children remained on the farm in Cabarras County with their mother after William died. They worked very hard in raising cattle and loaded them on flat boats down the Godkin River to Charleston, South Carolina, a distance of 300 miles.

The mother, Rhodisa Bundi Voiles, died of a wasp sting in the ear. The younger children then applied to court to get a settlement, sold the old farm and traveled to Kentucky.

Rolin, Rachel and David came in one crowd, they drove a conestoga (covered) wagon. It took about 2 months to make the trip. I have seen the old flint they used to make a fire enroute. Old Daves decendents still had the wagon in 1906 or part of it. It is owned by Elmer Voyles of Palmyra, Indiana. A great grand son of uncle Dave or Old Dave.

Malinda Voyles Brown had just learned to walk when they started and had to learn over. They had to cut down trees and tie to the back of the wagon when they crossed the Cumberland Gap, to keep them from pitching headlong down the mountains. Great piles of trees lay at the bottom, so many had gone before. Rolin's crippled daughter was brought in a hammock swung from the top of the wagon.

Rolin and Rachel stopped a year in Mercer County, Kentucky. Old Dave came on to Indiana. Crossed the Ohio River on a raft, and came to Washington County, Indiana, where he camped one night with his father's old wilderness mate, Townsend.

He endured many hardships getting out logs to build a house, in a snow storm, winter had set in. The other settlers helped. Have seen the old spring where he built his house.

The had, had a typical Voyles falling out in Kentucky is why Dave came alone. The trouble seems to have been over the women's cooking. The next year Rolin and Rachel came to Indiana and the difference seems to have been patched up.

The Voyles were hard shell Baptists and very religious.

Rolin took a claim near Dave. He had already been married twice when he left Carolina. He had, had three children by his first wife, one the daughter who was in the hammock across the mountains. His second wife made the trip with him. She probably had one child. Rolin married Mary Elizabeth Lingh. Uncle Rolon and wife Elizabeth Lingh Voyles are buried on the Lindsay D. Voyles farm, near big spring, Washington County, Indiana, 10 miles south of Salem. About 1835 the Indiana Voyles changed the spelling of their name Voiles to Voyles.

David Voyles, son of William born in North Carolina, Jan. 31, 1787. Married Barbara Endy, Sept. 11, 1811 came to Washington Co., Indiana in 1813. Died Feb. 17, 1882 at the age of 95 years. His wife was born 1789 and died Sept. 16, 1846 age 57 years. They were buried on the farm which he settled and cleared.

The William Voyles mentioned was our great, great grandfather. The David Voyles was our great grandfather, our mother's grandfather

Mary was
Mary Frances Lamping

Henry (Henrich) Frederick Klinker (father of Lewis Klinker) was the son of Henry William and Menna Klinker. Lewis's father, Henry was born March 27, 1836, at Westfalen, Germany. He married Mary Frances Lamping (daughter of Frederick and Lucy Lamping). They were married September 18, 1867. Mary was born in Westfalen, Germany, on June 29, 1846. They lived near the Rhine River and and was united with the German Reform Church. Henry was a mail carrier when he met Mary. They came to the United States on a ship named Lord Baltimore about October 1869, sometime after the assasination of Abraham Lincoln. It took about two weeks to make the trip. While they were on board, a small baby died and buried in the sea. This was upsetting to Mary. They spent some time in Baltimore visiting a cousin before going on to Indiana to live near some more cousins. He bought 60 acres near the Miller family. Although Henry wanted later to go back to Germany to visit, Mary was afraid because the captain had asked them to pray that the ship would not sink on the way over. They occasionly did visit northern Indiana to visit Lewis and family, but otherwise did not travel very far from home.

Henry had four brothers, also of Westfalen and Mary had a brother Henry. Mary apparently also had a sister, Amelia Rothschild, who lived in Louisville, Kentucky)

Mary was diabetic and had a bad leg. She passed away on the farm close to Palmyra, Indiana on February 23, 1916 at age 69 after a long illness. Henry passed away September 27, 1929, at the home of his daughter, Cora Avery, in Palmyra. He was 93 years and 6 months. There were 12 children, nine of which grew to be adults. They attended and were members of the German M.E. Church at Central Barren south of Palmyra. They became members in 1871. Henry got 3 German newspapers and read them up until the time of his death. They never learned to read English, though they spoke it some. Henry was a little man and Mary was a large woman. It seems Henry was quite close with his money. They are both buried in the cemetary at the Central Barren Church. They were both quite hard to understand. Mary baked the best cookies and they both wore wooden shoes.

VOYLES ...

The name Voiles, Voyles, could have come from France as the word is Voile for a certain type of fabric which was made in France. Today a voile fabric is a sheer fabric, sometimes plain and sometimes with an allover print. One source says that the Voyles were Huguenots and were persecuted and driven out of France. Some went to Wales for a time. So since voile is a French word it is likely that they did originate from France.

Jacob Voiles or Voyles came to America with his 4 sons from Wales in 1748 or 1759 as both dates are named. They came from Wales to Charleston, South Carolina.

William, your ancestor, was only 14 at the time of his crossing and he was apprenticed as a deck hand for 4 years to work out a debt made by the family during this passage. Because of this, he was estranged to his family and when at 18 he was released, he left his home and went to North Carolina. Apparently he had an uncle of the Voyles family there at the time.

JACOB VOYLES AND HIS 4 SONS CAME FROM WALES.

1. William Voyles at the age of 14. Birthdate circa 1734.

2. John Voyles, who died near the North and South Carolina dividing line.

3. Thomas Voyles moved to Mercer County, Kentucky

4. James Voyles, who died on the Godkin River in North Carolina

Their home appears to have been in Cabarras County, North Carolina. You can follow the Gadkin River in that area. Some of their descendants may be found in Indiana as well as North Carolina. It is hard to know at this point how to put them in the proper families.

But we can follow William and his family down to the present generation in 1998.

William married an Italian woman named Hannah Rhodesia Bundy and established a home in North Carolina. William died about 1804 in Carbarras County, N. C. and is buried on the family farm. Later on the mother Rhodesia died of a wasp sting in the ear. William received some of his land in North Carolina from the government for his service with the Marions, who were a guerrilla band during the Revolution, commanded by Francis Marion.

As they were on the frontier they were in constant danger from the Indians. Their log house was so constructed that they could stay inside and shoot from above. The story goes how the Indians came and drove off the cattle. William and the other boys went in search of them and were gone two or three days. Those left behind were in constant danger and "old Dave" who was one of the younger children were in constant terror especially at night. Indians came another time and surrounded the house and they boarded the windows for protection.

After the father died the children stayed on the farm with their mother. They worked hard in raising cattle. They loaded them on flat boats and went down the Gadkin River to Charleston, South Carolina, a distance of 300 miles. After the death of their mother the children applied in court to get a settlement, sold the old farm, and headed to Kentucky. David, Robin, and Rachel drove a covered wagon and it took about 2 months to make the trip.

Some of the descendants still had part of the covered wagon in 1906 in Palmyra, Indiana. Little Malinda Voyles Brown had just learned to walk and she had to learn all over again after the trip. They had to cut down trees and tie them to the back of the wagon when they crossed the Cumberland Gap to keep them from pitching headlong down the mountains. Great piles of trees lay at the bottom where so many had gone before.

Robin had a crippled daughter who made the trip and spent the trip in a hammock swinging from the top of the wagon. Robin and Rachel stopped for a year in Mercer County, Kentucky, and David came on to Indiana. He crossed the Ohio River on a raft and came to Washington County, Indiana. He endured many hardships getting out logs to build a home in a snowstorm as the winter had set in. Other settlers helped.

When Robin came the next year he took a claim near Dave. He had already been married twice before he left Carolina. His second wife made the trip with him.

William Voyles 1734-1804

married

Hannah Rhodesia Bundy or Bundi

1. Joseph Voyles m. Elizabeth Townsend

2. David or Dave Voyles 1787-1882 m. Barbara Endy 1811

David was said to be the 7th child.

3. Robin Voyles m. 1. 3 children
m. 2. Mary Eliz. Lingh 1 ch.

4. Rachel Voyles

5. Daniel Voyles 1793- m. Sarah

If David was 7th, there must have been others. We find the following in Washington County, Indiana, by the census reports and the birthdates of some who might have been children of William and Hannah.

Thomas, born 1782 Abel, born 1785 David, born 1787
Daniel, born 1793 John, born 1796 Joseph, born 1800

Just possible son's of William and Hannah Rodeshia. We can be sure about David and Daniel. These were still living in 1860 census.

A STORY FROM MOM ABOUT GRANDMA MILLER

Mom said that when she was a very little girl and they were living in Southern Indiana they lived very close to Grandma Amanda Miller. One day when they were in their farmhouse basement and her mother was doing the cream separating, Grandma Miller came in and she had made an embroidered picture of a cat for "Mary", my mom. Mom says she could hear her voice over the whirr of the separator and her mom, Hattie, did not stop with her work, but kept right on.

Anyway sometime after she was married mom framed the picture behind glass but don't think she ever displayed it. I do not remember ever seeing it at all. But she still had it when they moved into Ft. Wayne. I guess when they were living in the trailer at Harold's they had to store some of their things in the storage shed. This was after Susan was born as mom had also stored some of the dresses that she had made for Susan when she was a baby there also.

One day Dave, Lois's husband at the time, cleaned out the shed and made a bonfire out in back (I don't know where mom was at the time) but later Lois found pieces of the little dresses in the ashes and mom thinks that is probably what happened to the cat picture too. She hasn't ever seen it since that she can remember.

I, Lena Sappenfield, am trying to write the history of my ancestors. Some of these date back to 1748. What little reference I have, or can remember my parents telling me, and I can remember a lot myself. Some of the dates have been copies off markers in cemeteries. Some of the information my sister, Flora Miller, sent me. I have obtained some old history of the Voyles family, on my mother's side. Mother's mother was Lucinda Voyles Simpson and was a descendant of the Voyles that came from Wales in 1748. Flora gave me the following. Laura Nunumacher wrote it for her, she got it from Dr. Ellis' wife, who was a daughter or granddaughter of Dave Voyles' brother and lived in New Albany, Indiana.

The Voyles' History

In the year 1748, William Voyles, with his father and three brothers, came from Wales to Charleston, South Carolina. William, the oldest, was 14 years old and upon their arrival was an apprentice as a deck hand for four years to work out a debt incurred by the family during passage. He was estranged from his family because of this, and when he was released at the age of 18, he left home and went to North Carolina where, according to C. V. Voyles, he established a friendly relationship with his uncle, C. V. Voyles great, great grandfather. William married an Italian woman named Hannah Rhodesia Bundy and established a home in North Carolina. He shortly enlisted in the Cause of the American Revolution. William Voyles' brothers were as follows: John, who died near the line dividing North and South Carolina; Thomas, who moved to Mercer County, Kentucky; and James Voyles who died on the Godkin River in North Carolina. Children and grandchildren of these live in many states. There seems to be yet a different branch of this same family in North Carolina, and they still keep the original spelling of their name, spelled Voiles.

I wrote to county authorities and advertised in Cabarras County, North Carolina in 1906 and procured this data. I corresponded with C. V. Voyles, an attorney, who mailed me a clipping taken from Salem, Indiana paper dated 1876 and mailed to his father by old Dave Voyles of Washington County, Indiana. My father, Wilfred Voyles' Uncle Dave Voyles, who lived beyond 90 years of age, who was a son of William. Uncle Dave and C. V. Voyles' father always corresponded and considered themselves cousins.

C. V. Voyles said after William fell out with his family, he wrote an Uncle David in Wales and induced him to come to America. The C. V. Voyles family descended from this family of David.

William served in the American Revolution - there is no record of what he did between his 18th year and the Revolution, he could have fought in the French and Indian War. We have definite information from our branch of the family that he fought in the American Revolution, was one of the Marions, and rendered splendid service to his country. He was paid for his time in the Revolution by a grant of land from the government of North Carolina. This was found from official state records in North Carolina. The land was on the frontier, he moved there with his family.

Old Dave's daughter, Barbara Drucella Johnson, told us many stories of the frontier and how they were in constant danger of Indians. Their log house was so constructed that they could stay inside and shoot from above. The story relates how the Indians came and drove off the cattle. William and the other boys went in search of them, they were gone two or three days, and those left behind at home, including her father "Old Dave", who was one of the younger children, were in constant terror, especially at night. Indians came another time and surrounded the house, and they boarded the windows for protection. The older children first immigrated to Kentucky, then to Indiana.

William died about 1804 in Cabarras County, North Carolina, which was in a larger frontier. He was buried in the family burying ground on the old farm. C. V. Voyles said his father knew where the graves are and offered to take me to them if I came down. The younger children remained on the farm in Cabarras County with their mother after William died. They worked very hard in raising cattle. They loaded them on flat boats, down the Godkin River to Charleston, South Carolina, a distance of 300 miles. The mother, Rhodisa (Rhodia?) (Bundi, Bundy?) Voyles died of a wasp sting in the ear. The children then applied in court to get a settlement, sold the old farm, and moved to Kentucky. Robin, Rachel, and David drove a covered wagon. It took about two months to make the trip.

I have seen the old flint used to make a fire while traveling. Old Dave's descendants still had the covered wagon in 1906 or part of it. It is owned by Elmer Voyles of Palmyra, Indiana. A ~~great grandson~~ of "Old Dave", Malinda Voyles Brown, had just learned to walk when they started, and had to learn to walk all over.

They had to cut down trees and tie them to the back of the wagon when they crossed the Cumberland Gap to keep them from pitching head long down the mountains. Great piles of trees lay at the bottom where so many had gone before.

Robin's crippled daughter was brought in a hammock swinging from the top of the wagon. Robin and Rachel stopped for a year in Mercer County, Kentucky. Old Dave came on to Indiana, crossed the Ohio River on a raft, and came to Washington County, where he camped one night with his father's old wilderness mate, Townsend. He endured many hardships getting out logs to build a house in a snowstorm the winter had set in. Other settlers helped. They had had a family falling out in Kentucky, which is why Dave came alone. The next year, Robin and Rachel came to Indiana. Soon the family differences were patched up. The Voyles were hard shelled Baptists and very religious.

Robin took a claim near Dave. Robin had already been married twice when he left Carolina. He had three children with his first wife. His second wife made the trip with him, Mary Elizabeth Lingh - they had one child. Uncle Robin and Mary Elizabeth are buried on the Lindsay D. Voyles farm near Big Springs, Washington County, Indiana, 10 miles south of Salem. About 1835, the Voyles of Indiana changed the spelling to Voyles from Voiles.

David, son of William, married Barbara Endy September 11, 1811. They came to Washington County in 1813. He died February 17, 1882 (Barbara d. September 16, 1846, b. 1789). They are buried on the farm he settled and cleared.

Ernst (Ernest), lived in Longerich, children:

- Friedrich (a pastor). Darrell Klinker, great-grandson of Heinrich looked up a grandson of Friedrich during World War II, Ernst and his wife. Ernst is now deceased.
- Heinrich (a pastor)
- Emma

(Menna (Heinemann?) of Lengerich also on chart.)

Heinrich (Henry), see below.

(The above was gotten from a copy of a document obtained from Darrell Klinker, may not be exact facts as the document is very hard to read.)

Henry (Henrich) Frederick (Fredrick) Klinker (father of our father, Lewis Klinker; son of Henry William and Menna Klinker), b. March 27, 1836, at Westfalen, Germany. He married Mary Frances Lamping (daughter of Fredrick and Lucy Lamping) September 18, 1867 (b. in Westpahlia [Westfalen], Germany on June 29, 1846). They lived near the Rhine River, and was united with the German Reform Church. Grandpa was a mail carrier when he met Grandma. They came to the States on a ship named Lord Baltimore about October 1869(?)(after Lincoln's assignment), about two weeks traveling time (one upsetting incident, a small baby died on board ship and was buried at sea). They spent some time in Baltimore visiting a cousin, before going to Indiana to live near some more cousins. He bought 60 acres near the Miller family. Although Grandpa later wanted to go back to visit family in Germany, Grandma was afraid because the captain had asked them all to pray that the ship would not sink on the way over. They occasionally visited northern Indiana to visit Lewis and family, but otherwise did not travel far from home.

Grandpa had four brothers, also of Westfalen, and Mary had a brother, Henry. (Mary also apparently had a sister, Amelia Rothschild, who lived in Louisville, Kentucky and was friends with Aunt Lena). Mary was a diabetic and had a bad leg. She passed away on a farm close to Palmyra on February 23, 1916 at age 69 after a long illness. Grandpa passed away September 27, 1929 at the home of his daughter, Cora Avery, in Palmyra, Indiana, at age 93 years, 6 months. There were 12 children, nine of whom grew to be adults. They attended and were members of the German M.E. Church at Central Barren south of Palmyra. They became members in 1871. Grandpa got three German newspapers, and read them up to his death. They never learned to read English, though they spoke it some. Grandpa was a little man, and Grandma a large woman. It seems that Grandpa was rather close with his money. They are both buried in the cemetery by the Central Barren's church. We lived a mile from them when I was a child. I remember talking to them on the telephone. They were quite hard to understand. Grandma baked the best cookies. I can remember they both wore wooden shoes at home.

Anna Klinker was born December 9, 1868, in Germany. When she was two years old, she and her parents came to the U.S.A. (see Big Springs graveyard.) She married Henry Herthel, lived on a farm close to Palmyra, and they had three children:

The Millers:

Rudolph Henry Miller 1833 - 1904
married
Amanda Jane Simpson 1846 - 1933

1. George Marion Miller Nov. 1862 to August 1864

2. Marinda Melvina Miller Feb. 1864 to September 1864

George died on August 20th and Marinda died on September 4, less than a week apart. Makes you think that a disease may have been involved with their deaths. Amanda would have been just pregnant with their third child, William, at that time.

3. William Johnson Miller
May 6, 1865 to June 18, 1928 = 63 years

4. Alva Downing Miller
September 17, 1867 to August 26, 1868 = 11 months

5. Flora Catherine Miller
December 14, 1870 to May 4, 1956 = 86 years

6. Hattie Margaret Miller
August 26, 1875 to June 24, 1969 = 93 years

7. Lyman Charles Miller
April 6, 1878 to May 18, 1957 = 79 years

8. Noble Butler Miller
October 4, 1879 to September 1, 1953 = 73 years

9. Magdalena "Lena" Elizabeth Miller
May 11, 1886 to April 4, 1978 = 91 years

You are descended from Hattie Margaret Miller (Klinker) the 6th child of Amanda and Rudolph.

Names in this list that might give further clues to other grandmas and grandpas might be Johnson, Downing, Butler. These were used as middle names but usually came from other ancestors. If on the Miller side they would have to be traced back in Germany as Rudolph was born in Germany. Amanda had an aunt that married a Johnson.

I believe there is an ancestral link going back to Sinsheim, the Palatinate, Germany. Andreas' father was Johann Martin (b.1680) and his grandfather was Johann Daniel, b. 1640.
It is my understanding that the NC Byerlys sprang from that line. Wesley Grimes Byerly of Hickory, NC has documented the NC line. I have his Vol.III. I am not familiar with how far back volume 1 & 2 go. His son Wesley is a pharmacist at Bowman-Gray hospital in Winston-Salem, NC.
I met Wesley once and we did some comparing. I am descended from Andreas and the Pennsylvania line. SO- go back to the German origins

VOYLES, ANDREW M.

F487

Voyles: Jo, Mary, Andrew Voyles.

Andrew M. Voyles son of Thomas D. and Susan N. (Beck) Voyles, was born in Washington County, Indiana, April 11, 1867. His ancestors sailed from Wales in 1760. On June 12, 1883, he married Mary M. (Chastain) born June 11, 1867, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Chastain. They were French. To this union were born three daughters and three sons, Oscar, Stella, Bertha, William, and Flora, all born in Indiana, and Jo born north of Vinita, Oklahoma.

They made their home on a farm at Cambellsburg, Indiana, until 1904, when they became dissatisfied with the cold climate and wanted to move to the sunny south. In 1904 they moved their farm machinery, horses, and household items by train along with their family, and Susan N. Beck Voyles, mother of Andrew M. Voyles. They settled 3 ½ miles west of Pyramid corner north of Vinita. They only lived there a short time and moved to a farm 8 ½ miles northwest of Vinita in Eureka and Pheasant Hill, community known as Woodley Indian Territory. Woodley had a mill, post office and store. Andrew was known as mayor of Woodley. They built a new two story house and started farming and raising cattle, hogs and chickens. In those days corn, oats, wheat and milo crops were raised farming with teams of horses and mules. In the summer, grain was harvested with binders and thrashed with thrashing machine, by all the neighbors getting together. Hay was also bailed, this giving the neighbors a chance to get acquainted and spin yarns.

The family raised a garden and canned for winter. They made sauerkraut, and chow-chow in stone jars as fresh vegetables and fruits were not available in stores. In the fall after the weather began to get cold they butchered hogs, curing the meat, rendering lard, making and canning sausage. They also churned their own butter.

Their children attended school at Eureka. Entertainment at home included music with Andrew playing the banjo, Oscar the violin, William the guitar, Flora the piano and Jo sang and played violin and guitar. Saturday night was spent with neighbors and relatives coming to sing and hear music. They had one of the first radios with neighbors coming to hear Amos and Andy. Sunday morning the family attended Sunday school and church. Sunday afternoon was spent with neighbor children and grandchildren playing games and visiting.

Andrew's mother Susan Beck Voyles born January 14, 1827, died January 3, 1913 at Vinita was buried at West Point Cemetery northwest of Vinita.

Bertha R. Voyles and Leslie "Dess" Inman were married in Vinita November 27, 1910, their children were Jessie, Leslie (Butch), Lois, Opal and Flora Mae. They lived north of Vinita and later Leslie "Dess" lived in California. Bertha R. Voyles was born March 14, 1892 died July 11, 1953 and is buried in Fairview Cemetery Vinita. Leslie "Dess" Inman is buried in California.

Stella Voyles born in Indiana July 24, 1889, married Charley Tucker and they had 11 children, Marie, Naureen, Nellie, Marshell, Lura, Dick, Louise, Leroy, Ruby, Hobert, and Norma Jean.

They lived north Vinita on farm later moving to New Mexico and California. Stella died July 29, 1965, in California. Charley also died, they lived in Fresno, California.

Flora Ida Voyles born October 11, 1898 in Indiana married Homer Abbott born June 6, 1891. They lived in Vinita. They had two children Betty Marie, and Homer Thomas "Tommy". They attended Vinita schools. Homer died July 22, 1961 and Flora died September 27, 1980, both are buried in Fairview Cemetery Vinita, Oklahoma.

Andrew and Mary enjoyed farm life, everyone was always welcome to their home family and friends. Andrew enjoyed hunting and fishing. They continued living on this farm until their death. Andrew M. Voyles died December 24, 1947 at the age of 80 and Mary M. Voyles died September 19, 1952 at the age of 85, both are buried in Fairview Cemetery, Vinita, Oklahoma.

I found his name and picture in a newsletter from the Northeastern REMC which provides the power to us here. He was listed as a board member and retired from Verizon. Since this was the first Voyles I found in this area, and his schooling was from down in Southern Indiana and Kentucky, I jumped on the possibility that he might belong to our Southern Indiana family and wrote to him.

We corresponded with e-mails then and I went to visit with him one morning taking what I had printed off from my FTM and the pictures I had of David Voyles and Barbara Udy and their family. He was descended from a brother of David, by the name of Rolin. So that makes us "cousins" of a sort, I guess. However my line was all on the maternal side, and his went back by the male line to Rolin. I also made a CD of the pictures and took some of my photos from the cemeteries down there and let him have those. I had 2 copies and since both Deb and Ilene had taken almost identical photos they did not need them and neither did Helen want them, so I just had them left over. Some would be of his line. In return then he sent to me his cemetery pictures and a family photo of Nathan who was a grandson of Rolin Voyles, one of his grandfather William Russell Voyles and one of himself and his father, both Leslie Earl Voyles. Plus he had some of the information on Rolin's family……..some like mine, and some a little different. Also a wonder news article on one of the early Voyles, Linzy and Clarissa, and their story that they told to the newspaper. So interesting.

So we have Les Voyles, Jr. to thank for these pictures and the information plus the list of addresses that he had in one of his books of the Voyles all over the U.S.

Other information in this book then is from web sites on line that give some information about the Rolin Voyles family. There may be more info in my other Voyles books also about this family. Will eventually try to sort it out into this book but for the time being, it is still scattered.

was buried in Fairview Cemetery, with Bill Gibson and Roy Miller officiating. Miss Voyles was 74 years old.

Conflict because Les Voyles says the baby is William R. Voyles, his Grandfather, born 1880. Also question then about the two eldest. That would make the eldest boy Alford instead of John.

We also cannot identify "Adeline" by name. Most of the girls were married and gone by this time except for Harriet might still have been home if the baby was Charles meaning photo taken about 1877. If it is William then photo was taken about 1881 and by that time Harriet was found in her own home (in the 1880 census) and married to William Barksdale.

The 1880 Census of Nathan and Louise show a 34 year old woman named Martha Hill and was not listed as a relative, but a servant.

HISTORY OF WILLIAM AND HANNAH VOILS VOYLES

BY ERVIN D. VOYLES (Aug 1983)

Jacob Voils and his four sons came from Danbighshire, Wales to Charleston, South Carolina about 1759. William was the oldest, born in 1745, Thomas born 1760, James and John were twins born 1755. There has been no information on their Mother it is presumed she died before they left Wales.

Jacob was very poor and went in debt for their passage to America, so he hired William age 14 out as a deckhand for four years to pay off this debt. It is not known where the ship sailed the four years but it is belived that it made several trips from Wales to this country. On the return trips to Wales, William would stay with his Uncle David who lived in Herefordshire. After about three years William induced his Uncle David to come to America and he settled in Old Mecklenburg County now Cabarrus south of Concord. About a year later when William finally had worked out the debt of his father he returned briefly to South Carolina. Not liking the treatment of being compelled to work four years as a deckhand he left South Carolina and came to North Carolina to live with Uncle David. There is no information on his father Jacob, it is thought he probably lived with his son John near Greenville, South Carolina.

William enlisted in the 1st Bn. of the North Carolina Militia, July 4, 1776. This was one of the North Carolina units that fought with the American Revolution forces. He reenlisted in 1779. The Archives at Raleigh has two of his pay vouchers where he was paid in the Salisbury District, May 1782, nine pounds four shillings and in May, 1783, nine pounds two shillings both for Military service. He probably was enlisted until the end of the Revolutionary War. It must be remembered that the members of the Militia would fight when needed and return home. He was one of Marion's men. General George C. Marion was known in the war as the Swamp Fox. He and his small band of men aided the Revolutionary forces to win many of their battles. He also fought with General Gates and Green. He was captured in the battle of Camden by the British, which General Gates lost but he escaped. He was in the battles of Kings Mountain, Cowpens, Chowan and others.

During his enlistment he entered on March 6, 1779, a land grant on the West side of Big Coldwater Creek 150A in Old Mechenburg County. It was not granted until after the close of the war until August 1887. No doubt he and Hannah lived before he enlisted in the Militia on this land. The Coldwater Baptist Church is located on or near this land grant. He entered the second grant for another tract May 22, 1794 for 150 A.

...nd joined Big Coldwater Creek on the East side and his other tract on the ...est side. Later he entered a grant for 15 A between Big and Little Coldwater Creek. The large tract of land was joined on the North side by Nicholas Corzine and John Shaver, the West side Joshua Hadley or Headley and Walter Smiley and on the South by John Chamberlain another member of the Militia and William's trusted friend. He and Hannah were early members of the Coldwater Baptist Church. It is known that some or perhaps all the above land owners were members too. William's brother James had a land grant just across Big Clodwater Creek, also James McGran the father of William who sold the land to the Church.

On this land on Big Clodwater Creek, William, Hannah and their family raised cotton and shipped it on flat boat down the creeks and rivers to Charleston, South Carolina This was their main source of income to supportthe family until after William'and Hannah's death.

William was appointed by the Cabarrus County Court to help lay out a road from the Courthouse to Weddington Ford on the Rocky River, this is belived to be on or near the present Route 601, that is thought to run near his land.

The Court records show that in January 18, 1798, the last will and testament of William Voils was proven by Nicholas Corzine and John Weylie and letter of testament to his brother Thomas and his friend John Chamberlain. This showed he died in January 1798. The records show his estate was fully settled January, 1800. Hannah's death occurred in 1805, supposedly she died of a wasp sting. Her estate was settled by her son Rolin April, 1807. Both William and Hannah were buried on their land on Big Coldwater Creek, there has been a search but unable to find their graves, probably they have been destroyed over the period of time, this is why the monument has been placed in their memory.

Their children raised cotton for a while after Hannah's death, then some of the young children were not satified and petitioned the court to divide the land among them. The Cabarrus County records show that this was done January 24, 1811 and guardians were appointed for the minor heirs. It has been said after the division of this land, it became difficult to make a living raising cotton and in desperation they started leaving North Carolina thru Kentuckey to Indiana then a territory. By the end of 1813 all had left North Carolina.

MEMORIAL PLACED — Descendants of the Voils (Voyles) family, a pioneer Cabarrus County family, placed a memorial Sunday in the Cold Water Baptist Church Cemetery for William Voils, one of four sons of the Jacob Voils family who migrated to this area before the Revolutionary War. William, the eldest son, enlisted in the North Crolina Militia and served under several well known American military leaders, including General George C. Marion, known as "The Swamp Fox." Voils' grave has not been located and the marker is placed at Cold Water Baptist Church, located on property granted to Voils following the Revolution. Shown left to right are Ervin Voyles, Charles Voyles, Roy Voils and James H. Voyles Sr.

Oldest Baptist congregation in county

Coldwater plans homecoming

Coldwater Baptist Church, oldest Baptist congregation in Cabarrus County, will hold homecoming Sunday and guest speaker for the 11 a.m. service will be the Rev. John Barnhardt, pastor of First Baptist Church, Oakboro.

The traditional homecoming dinner will be served in the church fellowship hall following the worship.

The church choir, directed by the Rev. Jesse T. Yarbrough, pastor, will present a mini-concert from 10:45 to 11 a.m., with Mrs. Vicky Pickard as organist and Mrs. Linda McCoy at the piano.

Early in the history of this area, while the German settlers were establishing their Lutheran and Reformed congregations in the east and Scots were establishing Presbyterian churches in the west, Welsh-English Baptists followed, settling in between these communities on Coldwater Creek.

Coldwater Baptist Church was listed in the "Annual Register of the Baptist Denomination in North America" in 1790 as having 40 members and was headed by James McCabe.

In 1832 a division arose in the congregation and the majority held to the fashion of "Hard Shells" and claimed the property.

During the tenure of this influence the church was affiliated with the Bear Creek Primitive Baptist Association.

With migration of members, the church roll dwindled, and in 1863 the Rev. Joe McClure and the Rev. Silas Fincher, Missionary Baptists from Union County, held a revival. Under McClure's influence the church was reorganized.

Then in 1880, the Hard Shells objected to the use of the church building by the Missionary Baptists and locked the doors.

Coldwater Baptist Church

Leaders of the Missionary Baptist Group purchased property on the "Camden Road" and built the Coldwater Missionary Baptist Church, known at one time as Old Field Baptist Church, on its present site.

After 1886, Coldwater and First Baptist Church in Concord shared the same minister for a number of years, and in 1885 records show that $600 was appropriated to build a new church building.

This is assumed to be the replacement of the log building with a frame structure, which remained in use until 1955.

From 1914 to 1927 the building was closed, but was reopened thatyear and the Rev. Magnum Luther Ross was called as pastor.

The Rev. E. Clark Thompson was pastor from 1930 to 1932, the Rev. Adam Alexander Hathcock from 1933 to 1939, The Rev. Dennis T. Wright from 1940 to 1947, the Rev. Ray Isom Billings from 1947 to 1952, when the Rev. Farrell Shimpock became pastor of the growing church.

Under his leadership ground was broken in March, 1955, for the new church plant, and the present building was completed in December, 1955.

Shimpock accepted a call to Southside Baptist Church in Salisbury in 1961 and the Rev. Rex Wilson West served Coldwater from November, 1961, until his sudden death Jan. 11, 1964.

The Rev. Ray Harrington became pastor later that year and served until 1972.

For a number of years prior to Harrington's coming, there were periods of disagreement among the members concerning beliefs, and in August, 1967, a number of the members were given letters of dismission.

The Rev. William Ellis Pope served as pastor at Coldwater in 1972-74, Dr. Floyd Ray Rummage Jr. from 1974 to 1977, and the Rev. Jesse T. Yarbrough, the present pastor, came April 30, 1978.

In 1977 the Baptist Young Women and Mission Friends were organized and two extensive renovation projects added two Sunday school rooms and carpeting throughout the church.

Recentlythe church council was organized and a reorganized men's group has become active.

THOMAS VOYLES

Thomas Voyles (Voils, Voyls) was the fifth of ten children born to William(1745-1798) and an Italian immigrant, Hannah Rhodesia (Bundi) Voils (1747-1805). Both William and Hannah were buried on the land originally granted to William near Concord, Cabarrus County, North Carolina. William and Hannah were married in 1772 and their children were:

Joseph — Feb. 1773- _____1790. Died in N.C. at age 17.

Rachel — July 28, 1775- ____1842. Migrated to Mercer Co., Ky. 1812 or 1813, then to Wash. Co., Ind. 1813 or 1814. Married Joseph Fulk Dec. 16, 1824. Buried at Big Spring at age 67.

Rolin — July 14, 1778-Aug. 8, 1833, died at age 55. Migrated to Mercer Co., Ky. 1812 or 1813 then to Wash. Co., Ind. 1813-14. Married Mary_____ date unknown, and had three children by her. Married Elizabeth Lingle Aug. 27, 1811 in N.C. She made the trip to Kentucky and Indiana with him. It is thought they had one child. Rolin and Elizabeth are buried on the old Linzy D. Voyles farm 1¼ miles west of Big Spring. Land Grant, 1-1-1820, NW Qtr. S25 1N 3E.

Andrew — Apr. 9, 1780-1780. Died an infant in N.C.

Thomas — Sept. 25, 1782- ____1861. Died at age 79. Married Esther (Easter) Hadley Mar. 5, 1806. Moved to Wash. Co. 1812-13. Buried at Big Spring. He is the only one of the brothers not buried on the land he settled and cleared. Land Grant, 8-23-1821 SW Qtr. S25 1N 3E.

Abel — June 28, 1785- ____1866. Died at age 81. Married Jane Kelly Oct. 15, 1815 and Catherine Huff Aug. 7, 1821. Moved to Ind. 1812-13. Buried on the old Lafe Bunch farm, in NE Qtr. S35 1N 3E. Land Grant, 1-29-1824 SW Qtr. S26 1N 3E.

David — Jan. 31, 1787-Feb. 17, 1882. Died at age 95. No wonder he was known as "Old Dave". Married Barbara Udy Sept. 19, 1811. Moved to Mercer Co., Ky. with Rachel and Rolin in 1812-13. Didn't settle and came on to Ind., crossing the Ohio on a raft, and came to Wash. Co. where he camped one night with his father's old wilderness mate, William Townsend, who had migrated from N.C. and settled near Organ Spring. David endured many hardships getting out logs to build a house in a snow storm. Winter had set in and the other settlers helped. He is buried on the land he settled and cleared, known as the Jasper Voyles farm. Land Grant 6-29-1829 SE Qtr. S36 1N 3E.

Moses June 22, 1790- _____1840. Died at age 50. Came to Indiana 1812-13. Married Ruth Townsend, date unknown, and later moved to Morgan Co. Just when he moved to Morgan Co. is unknown, however, Washington Co. records show his Land Grant for SE Qtr. S24 1N 3E was dated 8-1-1834. He is buried near Martinsville on the land he settled and cleared, now owned and operated by his great-great-great-grandson, Norman D. Voyles.

Daniel Nov. 8, 1792- Oct. 15, 1867. Died at age 75. Came to Indiana 1812. Married Sarah White, date unknown, and Mary Noblitt Feb. 16,1826. All(?) are buried in the Voyles Cemetery ¼ mile directly East of Organ Spring on the farm he settled and cleared. Land Grant was dated 11-14-1844 for NW Qtr. S35 1N 3E. One history reports he was called up for service during the Indian uprising and could have been at Tippecanoe. If so, he would have had to be in Indiana in 1811, as Tippecanoe was Nov. 7, 1811. His tombstone says he came in 1812.

Hannah Apr. 14, 1795- ____1821. Died at age 26. Came to Indiana with Moses 1821-13. Married Silas Townsend, date unknown. It is thought that Silas and Ruth, wife of Moses, were brother and sister, children of aforementioned William Townsend. They moved to Morgan Co., date unknown, then back to Wash.Co. where she died and was buried.

After William's widow, Hannah, died of a bee sting in the ear in 1805, the four younger children farmed the home place for a few years, then sold the farm and moved west, apparently about the same time as the rest of the children. Rolin and David, with families, and Rachel (single) went to Mercer Co. Kentucky in a Conestoga wagon. It is possible there were two wagons. Rolin's crippled daughter was brought in a hammock swung from the top of the wagon. She was one of the three children by his first wife. It took two months to make the trip to Kentucky. There is a sentence in one of the old accounts, quote," Malinda Voyles Brown had just learned to walk when they started the trip and had to learn over." She could have been the one in the hammock and could have been temporarily crippled due to an injury. Mercer County was probably picked because their Uncle Thomas, brother of their father, William, had already settled there. The way to Kentucky and Indiana from North Carolina was by way of the Daniel Boone Trail over the Cumberland Gap. The hills were so steep they cut trees at the top and tied them to the wagons and drug them downhill to prevent the wagons from tumbling end over end. Discarded trees at the bottom had to be periodically burned to clear the trail. When they reached Kentucky, there was a family quarrel, apparently over the women's cooking, so David and family moved on to Washington County Indiana. Rolin and Rachel remained in Kentucky a year and then moved to Indiana, and settled near David. Evidently the quarrel had been patched up. David's descendant, Elmer Voyles, of Palmyra, still had the Conestoga, or parts of it, in 1906. Elmer was a great-great-grandson of "Old Dave".

The Voils, Voyls were hard shell baptists and very religious. There is no account as to why the name changed from Voils to Voyls to Voyles. William was Voils and his children were Voyls. The name changed to Voyles about 1835.

According to Register of Deeds Office, Cabarris County, N.C. Book #5 ,page 186 states in short that Thomas sold 66 acres Nov. 3, 1803 that was granted by the State Dec. 20, 1790. The deed was recorded in Jan. 1805. Value of the sale was 70 lbs. Most likely this land had been granted to his father, William.
Thomas and Abel also jointly owned 31 acres in Cabarris County. According to a deed found in the Office of Register of Deeds, Cabarris County, Book #8, Page 454, this land had been inherited from their father. They sold the land Nov.1, 1813 for $285. Then, according to Book #8, page 467, they appointed their brother, Daniel, as their true and lawful attorney to draw up a deed in fee simple to present to the buyer. This action was July 28, 1815, after they were in Indiana.

Note that there were several years between the time they settled in Indiana and the dates of the land grants. This could be due to several reasons such as slowness in getting the land surveyed, getting it reported to the County and getting it recorded.

In Indiana, Thomas started with SW Qtr. S25 1N 3E. According to the 1860 map of Howard Township, he owned 480-500 acres. That map also shows that his youngest son owned 240 acres in S22 and S23. None of his other children are shown as landowners on that map. The youngest son was Thomas J.

The 1878 map of Howard Township shows that the land Thomas had owned was divided between sons John and Linzy D. John had 160 acres and Linzy D. had 3 parcels, 2 of 80 acres and 1 of 160 acres. According to the 1981 map of the township, theland that Thomas once owned (480-500 acres) is now owned by John Voyles, Cass Arnold, Kenneth Adams, _____McGuffey, Len & Wilma_____ (the old Linzy D. place) and part of James and Johnny Woodward.

The children of Thomas and Esther were:

Matilda Jan. 3, 1807- _____. Married Simeon Lofton, date_____. Buried at _____.

Samuel Ervin Sept. 15, 1808- _____. Went to Morgan County and once owned all the original site of Martinsville.

Hannah Nov. 12,1820- _____. Married Leander Tow _____. Buried at _____.

Linzy D. Jan. 16, 1822-Sept.24, 1914. Died at age 92. Married Clarissa Bishop Nov. 25, 1849. Buried at Big Spring.

Note that Thomas and Esther had 3 or 4 children by the time they came to Ind. in 1812 or 1813.

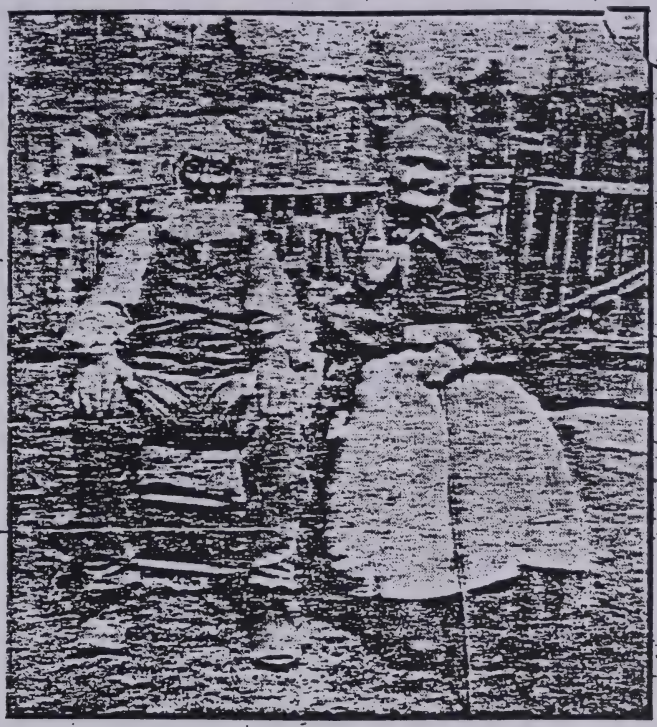
Married Sixty-Four Years



MR. AND MRS. LINZY VOYLES

Nations rise and fall, generations come and go. Mr. and Mrs. Linzy Voyles, whose likeness appears above, have traveled together sixty-four years. On the banks of Big Blue River, ten miles south of Salem, in Howard township, Mr. Voyles was born, January 16, 1822, and Mrs. Voyles, who was Clarressie Bishop, was born eight years later, February 2, 1830. They were united in marriage November 25, 1849, by Squire John Mitchell.

An interesting story of their marriage is told by them. It seems that the time selected by them was an unusually good night for matrimony. Mr. Voyles had neglected to engage anyone to perform the ceremony, thinking that would be an easy matter. But he found it far from that. The first one he called on was Squire Mitchell and he was informed that he was engaged to officiate at the marriage of Peter Colglazier. He next went to see a minister by the name of Tommy Green and he too was engaged to marry a couple. He went for the third party and he was engaged. Mr. Voyles was determined not to be outdone, so at a late hour he called on Squire Mitchell and found he had retired for his night's repose. He explained the circumstances to Mr. Mitchell and that all arrangements were made and he wanted the ceremony pronounced that night. Mr. Mitchell seemed pleased with the young man's remarks and told him if he could find his horse he would go. The horse was soon found and near midnight they [illegible] and in the dim light of an oil lamp, they were pronounced man and wife.

They still have the lamp that furnished the light on that memorable occasion. It is three inches square and two inches deep with a lid that opens and closes like a teakettle. There is also a spout similar to a teakettle. A hook was attached to the lamp so it could be hung to a wooden peg in the wall. Lard oil and tallow was used, kerosene being unheard of at that time. This sort of lamp was the only kind used by them for many years after their marriage. Mrs. Voyles remarked that she "had spun, wove, knit and sewed by this light while Mr. Voyles had hammered away making and mending shoes during the winter months."

arrived at the bride's home and in the dim light of an oil lamp, they were pro-

They have reared to manhood and womanhood a family of fourteen children. For many years Mrs. Voyles spun and wove the cloth, cut and made the suits and garments for the entire family. She even made the thread that she sewed the garments with from flax.

It was the fifth of April the following spring when they went to housekeeping where they now live. At that time it was a log house with a stick chimney and puncheon floor. The house has since been remodeled and made a comfortable dwelling. The house was built by Mr. Voyles, probably 70 years ago and ~~before the New Albany and Vincennes Turnpike was constructed.~~ Mrs. Voyles said when they went to housekeeping the following furniture was all they had: three chairs, one pot, one frying pan and an oven. They had no table or bed, so a bed was made by boring holes in the wall and putting in sticks, then a post was placed under the outer end and poles layed on them, over which the bed clothes were spread and a very comfortable bed was the result. Spoons and forks were made of wood and old North Carolina gourds were used for water vessels. Thus a home was set up and if you would visit there today you would find an angelic mother, grand and great-grandmother, a faithful father, grand and great-grandfather.

Mr. and Mrs. Voyles have lived in the neighborhood where they now live all their lives. Mr. Voyles was Mrs. Voyles' first beaux and they have been sweethearts ever since. They have nine living children, forty grandchildren and forty-two great grandchildren.

Mr. Voyles informed the writer that he wore a tow gown until he was twelve years old and not being much on fashions still clings to old style clothes and as you will notice in the picture is still wearing "barn-door" pants. He was never more than three miles from home until he was over fifteen years of age. At the age of sixteen he made his first trip to Salem and on a very unpleasant mission. He came with his father and had two teeth extracted, Dr. Newland, then one of the leading physicians of this place doing the work for him.

Mrs. Voyles wore home spun dresses nearly all her life. The first calico dress she had was purchased of Charley Green who conducted a store at Halo. It cost 18 cents a yard and she paid for it by exchanging tow cloth she had made. Samuel Green now lives where the store was.

Great changes have taken place since Mr. Voyles was a young man. Then wheat was cut with a sickle and threshed out with a flail, and by the way Mr. Voyles has one of the old flails he used years ago. The ground hog thresher finally came into use and Mr. Voyles run one for four years. He also run a distillery for the same length of time.

His ancestors on one side were Dutch and Irish and on the other Welch and Italian. The original Voyles came to this country from Wales and his father immigrated to Indiana from North Carolina and Mrs. Voyles' parents came from South Carolina.

The first school house of his remembrance was built on the Levi Elliott farm and was a log building 16x16 feet with a fire place in one side. On one side of the room a log was cut out and the space covered with greased paper to furnish light. A poplar log was split into and was supported by pegs driven in the wall, this was the writing desk. Seats were made from split timbers. One of the games played at school those days was "long tail cat." The present generation will no doubt wonder how the game was played.

The place called Halo was named from the manner in which Mr. Voyles would call when he would ride up to a house. It is customary to say hello, but he would yell, "Halo!" Hence the name of a former postoffice of this county.

Mrs. Voyles has used tobacco since she was fourteen years of age. When the writer and Earl Colglazier visited them a few days ago, she was using "long green" and Earl gave her some "honest twist," but she preferred the old kind. Mr. Voyles was out on the farm where his grandson was sowing oats.

During Mr. Voyles' sojourn of ninety-two years here, he has rode on a train twice; once during the civil war, when he went to Louisville, and the second time when A. P. Willard was governor of Indiana, he was called to Indianapolis on a trial. Mrs. Voyles has never seen inside of a train.

We stated once before that Mr. V. made his first trip to Salem when he was 16 years of age. He came on horse [illegible]. At the age of 91 he came in the same manner, it being 75 years from the [illegible] the first trip. He is preparing for another ride and is overhauling his saddle and putting on a new sheepskin seat.

As we view the lives of this aged couple, a volume could be written that would be interesting to the present and future generations. We end this sketch

THOMAS J. VOYLES.

Thomas J. Voyles, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Washington county, passed away at his home on Blue river in Howard Township last Sunday evening, after an illness due to the infirmities of age. He was born November 26, 1832. The funeral service was held at Big Spring church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial in cemetery nearby.

The Voyles Coat of Arms

And its History

Coats of Arms were developed in the Middle Ages as a means of identifying warriors in battle and tournaments. The present function of the Coat of Arms (although still one of identity) serves more to preserve the traditions that arose from its earlier use.

Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. The Coat of Arms illustrated herein was drawn by an heraldic artist from information recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Our research indicates that there are often times a number of different Coats of Arms recorded for a specific surname. When possible we select and translate the Coat of Arms most representative of your surname or its variant for illustration.

THE VOYLES COAT OF ARMS HEREBY ILLUSTRATED IS OFFICIALLY DOCUMENTED IN BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY. THE ORIGINAL DESCRIPTION OF THE ARMS (SHIELD) IS AS FOLLOWS:

"GU. THREE ESCUTCHEONS AR. EACH CHARGED WITH A CINQUEFOIL OF THE FIRST."

WHEN TRANSLATED THE BLAZON ALSO DESCRIBES THE ORIGINAL COLORS OF THE VOYLES ARMS AS:

"RED; THREE SILVER SHIELDS, EACH CHARGED WITH A RED CINQUEFOIL."

ABOVE THE SHIELD AND HELMET IS THE CREST WHICH IS DESCRIBED AS:

"A RED STAR BETWEEN TWO GREEN PALM BRANCHES."

There are nine other John Voyles in the Indiana marriages besides the ones here

I. Lena Soffenfield am trying to write the history of my ancestors.

Some of this dates back to 1748

What little reference I have, or can remember my parents telling me, and I can remember a lot of the folks myself.

Some of the dates have been copied off markers in cemetery.

Some information my sister Flora Miller sent me

I have obtained some old history of the Voyles family. the Voyles are on our mothers side

Her mother was Lucinda Voyles Simpson and was a decendent of the Voyles' that came from Wales in 1748

Flora gave me the following. Laura Nunnemacher wrote it for her, she got it from Dr Ellis' wife, she was a daughter or grand daughter of Dave [illegible] bro. and lived in New Albany

The Voyles History

In the year 1748 William Voyles with his father, and three brothers came from Wales to Charleston, S.C.

William the oldest was 14 years old and upon their arrival was apprenticed as a deck hand for 4 years to work out a debt incurred by the family during passage.

He was estranged from his family because of this, and when he was released at the age of 18 left home and went to North Carolina where according to C.V. Voyles he established friendly relations with his uncle C.V. Voyles great great grandfather Williams married an Italian woman named Rhodisa Bundy and established a home in North Carolina

Shortly enlisting in the cause of the American Revolution

William Voiles (Voyles) brothers were as follows: John who died near the line dividing North & South Carolinas

Thomas Voiles who moved to Mercer Co Ky. and James Voiles who died on the Godkin River in N. Carolina

Children and grand children of these live in many states

There seems to be yet a different branch of this same family in N. Car and they still keep the original spelling of their name Voiles

I wrote to County authorities and advertised in Cabarras Co. N. Car in 1906 and procured this data.

Corresponded with C. V. Voyles, - an attorney who mailed me a clipping taken from a Salem Ind paper dated 1876 and mailed to his father by "Old Dave Voyles of Washington Co Ind. my father Wilfred Voyles uncle Dave Voyles, who lived beyond 90 who was a son of William

Uncle Dave and E.V. Voyles father always corresponded and considered themselves cousins

E.V. Voyles said after William fell out with his family he wrote an uncle David in Wales, and induced him to come over.

The E.V. Voyles family descended from this David

William served in the American Revolution, there is no record of what he did between his 18th year and the revelotion, he could have fought in the French & Indian wars.

We have definite information from our branch of the family that he fought in the American Revolution, was one of Marions men and rendered splendid service to his country, he was paid for his Revolution service by a grant of land from the government of North Carolina. This found from official State records in N. Car. the land was on the frontier, he moved there with his family.

Old Daves daughter Barbara Drucilla Johnson told many stories of the frontier and how they were in constant danger of Indians

The log house was so constructed that they could shoot out from above. The story relates how the Indians came and drove off the cattle, and William and the older boys went in search for them. they were gone two or three days, and those left at home including her father "Old Dave" who was one of the younger children were in constant terror especially at night

Indians came another time and surrounded the house and they boarded the windows for protection.

The older children first immigrated to Kentucky and then to Ind.

William died about 1804 in Cabarrus Co. N. Car which was no longer a frontier, he was buried in the family burying ground on the old farm, which can be easily located from County records. C.V. Voyles said his father knew just where the graves are and offered to take me to them if I would come down.

The younger children remained on the farm in Cabarrus Co with their mother after William died. They worked very hard in raising cattle and loaded them on flat boats down the Yadkin River to Charleston S. Car a distance of 300 miles the younger children then applied to court to get a settlement; sold sold the old farm, and traveled to Kentucky.

The mother Rhodisa Rundi Voiles died of a wasp sting in the ear.

Robin, Rachel and David came in one crowd, they drove a Conestoga (covered) wagon, it taken about 2 months to make the trip.

I have seen the old flint used to make a fire enroute. Old Daves descendents still had the wagon in 1906 or part of it. it is owned by Elmer Voyles of Palmyra Ind. a great grandson of uncle Dave or Old Dave Malinda Voyles Brown had just learned to walk, when they started and had to learn over.

They had to cut down trees and tie to the back of wagon when they crossed the Cumberland Gap to keep them from pitching headlong down the mountains

Rolins crippled daughter was brought in a hammock swung from the top of wagon

Rolin + Rachel stopped a year in Ky. Mercer Co

Old Dave came on to Ind. crossed the Ohio river on a raft and came to Washington Co where he camped one night with his fathers old wilderness mate - Townsend—

He endured many hardships getting out logs to build a house in a snow storm, winter had set in.

The other settlers helped. Have seen the old spring where he built his house.

They had had a typical Voyles falling out in Ky. is why Dave came alone the trouble seems to have been over the women cooking.

The next year Rolin & Rachel came to Ind. and the difference seems to have been fatched up.

The Voyles were hard shell Baptists and very religious

Rolin took a claim near Dave. he had already been married twice when he left Carolina

He had had 3 children by the first ~~wife~~ wife — one the daughter who was in the hammock (across) the mountains his second wife made the trip with him. she probably had one child. Rolin married Mary Elizabeth Lingle uncle Rolin and wife Elizabeth Lingle Voyles are buried on the Lindsay D. Voyles farm near big spring Washington Co Ind 18 miles South of Salem. About 1833 the Indiana

Voyles changed the spelling of their name
